CATALOGUE 2021

CLASSICAL MUSIC FROM SPAIN

The long history and wide influence of Spanish music gives it a unique position in Europe and Latin America, and our catalogue reflects its abundance of tradition and vibrant inventiveness.

Growing from the foundations laid by composers such as Alfonso X and Juan de Anchieta, the 16th century polyphonic vocal style of Victoria, and the instrumental music of Narváez and Cabezón. Italian influence marked Spanish music in the 18th century, with Soler as its leading virtuoso of the harpsichord. The guitar is symbolic of the music of Spain, and techniques developed by key composers such as Sor, Llobet and Tárrega became defining factors in the expressive range and character we hear from this instrument today.

The unmistakably Iberian and distinctively evocative music of Albéniz and Granados moves almost seamlessly through to the crisp rhythms and poetically impressionist observations of Manuel de Falla, Federico Mompou and Josquin Rodrigo. This wealth of musical heritage frequently links the past with Spain's composers of today, such as Leonardo Balada, Lorenzo Palomo and Jesús Guridi.
